

JOB POSTING - LICENSED MENTAL HEALTH THERAPIST

Willamette Sky Counseling is seeking a licensed (LPC, LMFT, LCSW) therapist.

ABOUT US:

At Willamette Sky Counseling (WSky) our mission is to provide the highest quality care and therapy to all people. This means we see our differences as strengths, and we welcome all members of our diverse community into our practice. As one of our licensed clinicians, you will be part of a team who consult and support one another's professional development and excellence in client care, and who value autonomy, flexibility, and collaboration. In this position, you will have the opportunity to work directly with clients and/or as an Intake therapist.

COMPENSATION:

We offer a market competitive rate with the opportunity to earn 70K-95K, Medical, Dental, Paid Time Off, and Retirement benefits. We offer peer consultation, supervision, consultation, paid CEU workshops, staff events, and book clubs.

All therapists are provided with office administration including credentialing, intake scheduling, insurance and claims billings, marketing, and professional consultation.

As a WSky therapist, you enjoy the flexibility to create your own schedule, the option to work in a beautifully designed office space, or remotely, with the added benefit of a team of knowledgeable and experienced colleagues. In addition, our administrative staff is current with all insurance and legal requirements in the state of OR.

POSITION DESCRIPTION:

Willamette Sky Counseling has an opening for a licensed mental health therapist and licensed intake mental health therapist position. We are looking for a part time (10-12 hours weekly) or full time (20+ hours weekly) licensed therapist. Our group practice is focused on increasing access to mental health services throughout Oregon. Our collaborative and experienced clinical team offers both in-person and telehealth therapy services to our community.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Therapists must possess a valid State of Oregon License.
- Be able to pass a background check.
- A willingness to research, share information, and contribute in a team setting.

- A passion and excitement for helping others, acceptance and empathy for all persons, awareness of your own struggles, patience and knowing how to listen and establish trust, and respectful communication.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Interested applicants: Please submit the following: (1) a cover letter expressing their interest in the position as well as relevant experience and qualifications; (2) resume; and (3) list of persons and contact information for three professional references. All application materials should be submitted via email to: admin@wskycounseling.com

Willamette Sky is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants including minorities, protected veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.
